

About the Program

The American Law and Language Program is a non-credit, non-degree program designed to provide individuals who have studied, or are currently studying, law outside of the U.S. with a broad exposure to major concepts in U.S. law and American legal training. This program is a wonderful resource for incoming Moritz LL.M. students to gain hands-on preparation for their master's studies, as well as practicing attorneys, judges, business law professionals, and those preparing to join any LL.M. program in a U.S. law school.

Program Information

Dates: Tuesday, July 28th - Friday, August 14th, 2015 (70 total hours of instruction/activities)

Cost: $2,100 - deadline to enroll and pay is July 24th, 2015

Housing: Temporary housing is available on a limited basis (separate fees apply)

For more information, go to: moritzlaw.osu.edu/admissions/llm/american-law-language-program

To apply, go to: moritzlaw.osu.edu/admissions/llm/american-law-language-program/application

Program Highlights

- Workshops and seminars taught by many of Ohio State's noted scholars
- Planned outings include law firm visits, court tours, and more!

Contact Information

moritzllm@osu.edu

+614-292-1241

Modules and Topics Covered

Survey of Legal English	Introduction to U.S. Law & the Legal System	U.S. Law School Study Preparation	Legal Research & Writing Workshops
Legal Vocabulary	U.S. Legal System	Socratic Method	Analyzing Facts & Identifying Issues
	Business Associations
Listening & Comprehension Skills	Civil Procedure	Case Briefing	Researching Primary Law and Secondary Resources
	Constitutional Law
Public Speaking & Oral Advocacy	Criminal Law	Study Methods & Course Outlining	Citing Legal Authorities
	Evidence
U.S. Culture & Communicating in Professional Settings	International Business Transactions	Honor Code/Ethics and Professional Responsibility	Drafting Memoranda of Law
	International Dispute Resolution
	Intellectual Property	U.S. Law School Culture	Drafting Skills for Transactional Lawyering
	Torts		